

FOREIGN AID - Rubric for Presentation

	Level 4	Level 3	Level 2	Level 1
Understanding	The group's knowledge of subject matter is exceptional. They are able to answer all questions.	The group's knowledge of subject matter is good. They are able to answer most questions.	The group's knowledge of subject matter is fair. They are able to answer some questions.	The group's knowledge of subject matter is poor. They are unable to answer most questions.
Comprehensiveness	The presentation went beyond criteria outlined by the teacher.	The presentation covered all criteria outlined by the teacher.	The presentation covered most of the criteria outlined by the teacher.	The presentation covered little of the criteria outlined by the teacher.
Preparedness	All group members are very well prepared. The presentation was seamless in its organization.	Most group members are well prepared. The presentation was well organized.	Some of the group members are well prepared. The presentation is somewhat organized.	None of the group's members are well prepared. The presentation is disorganized.
Quality of Rubric	Categories of rubric are extremely well thought out and very relevant to topic.	Categories of rubric are generally well thought out and mostly relevant to topic.	Some of the categories of rubric are well thought out and sometimes relevant to topic.	The categories of the rubric make little sense and are not relevant to the topic.
Results	After the presentation there was no doubt in my mind that the group had chosen the best NGO in their category.	After the presentation there was little doubt in my mind that the group had chosen the best NGO in their category.	After the presentation there was some doubt as to whether the group had chosen the best NGO.	After the presentation I felt that the group had not chosen the best NGO in their category.